New Theatre

Increased Recreational Facilities Planned For Area At Bowling Site

Leonard E. (Whitey) Cline, former baseball player for the Pittsburgh Pirates, is contemplating opening a new motion picture theatre here in Belle Glade. At present, Cline is president of Sunstate Bowling and Recreation, Inc. of Winter Haven, and recently purchased the Glades Bowling Lanes and property at the intersection of State Road 80 and 827-A.

An informal opening was held Saturday night, at which time, Cline and his business associates, Mr. and Mrs. Donna S. Cline, announced their plans to increase recreational facilities at the lanes. Cline stated that there is a possibility that an organization, of which he is the head, will construct a new building for the bowling lanes, but will visit here this week to make further plans for expansion. There will be ample parking space for the proposed new theatre, which would be adjacent to the bowling lanes. Also included in the tentative expansion plans is a billiard parlor, which will accommodate ladies, who are reportedly becoming quite interested in the sport.

At the completion of the remodeling, it is hoped there will be a free bus service to accommodate bowlers from the areas of Clewiston, Pahokee, South Bay and Clewiston.

Approximately 400 guests were present for the informal opening on Saturday, at which time, Mrs. Betty Wilson, of Canal Point, was the recipient of a $25.00 Savings Bond, presented as a prize by Junior Mosley, of the Bank of Pahokee, and a deep fryer was presented to Mrs. LeBron Williams, wife of the Mayor of Belle Glade.

Rainfall Eases Drought Crisis

Rainfall of between three and six inches in the past week has raised water tables in the Everglades and eased the drought crisis, at least for the present. Giant pumps, operated by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, have been moving more than 5,000,000 gallons of water from the conservation areas into the Everglades and into the great reservoir of Lake Okechobee in recent days.

Ed Dail, Executive Director of the FCD, said the level of water in Lake Okechobee has risen almost four inches in the past week. Stages of between 12.7 and 12.9 feet (above sea level) were recorded at five pumping stations on the shoreline Monday. One week ago Lake stages averaged 12.4 feet. The lake is the primary source of water for much of southern Florida. The stage was almost up to the level of 13 feet desired on June 15.

In Conservation Area 1, in Palm Beach County, the level of water rose more than three feet in the past week. A stage of 14 feet (above sea level) was recorded Monday at the headquarters of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, west of the Delray Beach-Boynton Beach area. This is the regulation stage desired on this date.

Pumping Station S-5A at the northern end of the storage area and pumping station S-6 on the western side have been moving more than 1,600,000 gallons of water per minute southward into the reservoir. Rainfall of 4.45 inches and 5.05 inches was recorded in the past seven days on the north and western sides of Conservation Area 1.

"Pete" LaChance Drowned When Car Plunged In Canal

A car-canal accident claimed the life of Peter J. LaChance, 58, well known business man and produce executive of Lake Shrimp Growers. Cooperative, when his car plunged into the Hillsboro Canal as LaChance was driving south on N. E. First Street in the early hours Friday morning.

There were no observers to the accident, which occurred after the victim had returned from a meeting in Delray Beach with Terry Miller, who reportedly drove the car to his home at 708 N. E. First Street, turning the wheel over to the owner, who was traveling the wet streets enroute to his home at 334 S. E. 2nd Street. Residents living near the scene of the accident later reported they had seen awakened by "some odd commotion" but on investigation saw nothing to report.

A search was begun by Miller and the deceased's brother-in-law, Joseph L. Murphy, when LaChance failed to show up for a business meeting Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and they found he had not slept in his bed. Murphy and Miller observed

City May Out Trees Along SR 80, South

The State Road Department has no funds budgeted to pay for cutting the trees and filling the ditch along the east side of State Road No. 80, south from the Bradstock building project to the City limits.

However, the Road Department will GIVE the City permission to do this and fill the ditch, provided the community Garden Clubs don't object.

It is discovered that the South Florida Conservancy District has a preemptory right to the ditch as a facility of its water control system.

The City may find "in-between" occasions when the trees might be disposed of periodically; the material for filling is another matter — the matter of $ $ $ $ $, which are scarce for that purpose.

At the time of the accident, the victim's wife, Mrs. Bertha LaChance was visiting relatives in Nahava, N. H. accompanied by his 19-year-old daughter Anna Maria, who was a student this year at Boston College.

The submerged car was located about 3 p. m. in the 10-foot deep murky canal waters by Richard Chappell, but his diver's tank was found to be defective and Chief Charles Goodale asked assistance from the Sheriff's Department.

When the search first began, 14-year-old Stanley McWhorter brought his boat which was anchored nearby, to the scene for Patrolman Willis and Spooner who attempted to locate the car and victim.

After hooking a chain to the submerged car, Sgt. Val Haley, in charge of water operations for the Sheriff's Department, and several dives attempting to locate the missing body, which had been thrown from the vehicle, but was unsuccessful.

The LaChance family planned to leave on a trip to Rome next month and Mr. LaChance, who had recently won two first trips to the Vatican City, had been arranging passports.

Canal Hazard Meet

Probably July 10 Tallahassee Says

THE HERALD is advised at four PM Wednesday afternoon from Tallahassee that Ra'ah Davis, Executive Administrator of the State Road Board has confirmation from Board Chairman Floyd Bowen and District Board Member Senierchia that July 17th at 11:30 AM is the date when they will meet with the Glades Canal Hazard Committee, in the Glades, for a formal commencement of work on road guards provided by the State Road Department.

A bridge will be dedicated at Indiantown at 9:30, so that the 11:30 meeting at Belle Glade may be made. The formalities on State Road No. 80 will be followed by a luncheon at the Holiday Inn, arrangements for which are in the hands of the Glades Committee.

The Governor, we are advised, has definitely removed himself as a prospective participant in ceremonies which are designed to acknowledge the effectiveness of the Governor's request to the State Board, and the work of the Board in providing deterrents to canal tragedies along public highways in South Florida.

Mr. Davis is thanking the Palm Beach County Commission for its operation in nailing down the plan, as well as its joining the Glades Committee in arranging the acknowledged ceremonies planned by chairman Earwood's Committee.

US Supreme Court's Communist Leaning Make 14 (b) Vital

Reports that the U. S. Supreme Court's decision to allow communists to serve as officials of a labor union emphasizes the importance of retaining the 14 (b) clause in the Taft-Hartley labor law.

American workers in the United States may dominate labor unions and force workers to pay tribute in American Dollars to the Communist cause, through communist dominated unions.

At present, each state may prescribe against forcing workers to join a union, and 19 have done so.

Now the power-mad unions, with the support of the White House and the Administration are bending every effort to take this privilege away from ordinary Americans and giving the purse and power strings to Unions, many of which have been branded communists by Legislative Committees.

Florida's small county representatives didn't have the punch they, as Porkchoppers, have enjoyed in the past — they were defeated in the House on their proposal to create a 330-member Legislature, 200 House members and 130 Senators.

Information from Tallahassee Wednesday noon is that the House and Senate Committees are getting together with the prevailing idea that moderation must be observed, if the Courts are prevented from doing the reapportionment, which none actually wants.

CHURCHES Of Christ Scientist

"Is the Universe, Including Man, evolved by Atomic Forces?" will be the subject of the Bible Lesson to be heard at Christian Science services throughout the world on Sunday.

Scriptural passages will include this verse from Isaiah: "I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight." The concluding Bible Citation is from Revelation: "And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new."

The theme will be taken up further in readings from the Christian Science textbook: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development... Spiritual evolution alone is worthy of the exercise of divine power." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, pp. 547, 113.)

TODAY'S meditation

There, in accordance with the penalty for violation of the decree, the faithful, courageous young men were bound and placed in the furnace. God did not prevent them from entering the burning fire furnace, but delivered them from the fire. Their astonishing deliverance so impressed the king that he favored their God and promoted them in the province.

PRAYER: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Our darkest hour may be our greatest.

Mango Girl Scout Day Camp Has Large Enrollment This Year

The Mango Girl Scout Day Camp is holding annual camp on city property at the marina. The first session began June 7 and continued through June 11. The second week began on Monday, June 14, and will run this week through June 18.

The camp opens at 10 a. m. each morning and closes at 4 p. m. Directors are Mrs. Mittie Lealand and Mrs. Frances Morgan. The girls learned how to put up tents on the first two days of camp.

The camp opened each morning by saying the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, singing camp songs and saying the by-laws. There are only four adult leaders, Joan Powell, Cornelia Williams, Martha Dixon and Mary Dixon. Each leader has an assistant.

The girls have enjoyed two cookouts and some of the girls went to the pool, and played games and various activities. Most of the girls are taking arts and crafts and have made notepapers, pocket books and other items. One day the girls went hiking, but the rainy season kept them from doing so.

About 30 to 40 girls have enrolled this summer for the day camp. Most all are from Belle Glade, South Bay and South Shore camp. This is the first year that girls from Pahokee were not in attendance.

Those girls working at the camp are Deborah Byrd, Patricia Powell, Rebecca Allen, Joann Power and Mary Powell.

GARDENING IN FLORIDA

By Hervey Sharpe, Editor, Florida Agricultural Extension Service

Plant diseases are like mortgage payments—they are regular events.

You can borrow to pay the mortgage. But this won't work in the garden, because diseases don't accept I. O. U's.

To keep from borrowing garden troubles, make daily inspections and be ready to act if a disease appears.

Remember, a few ounces of chemicals as prevention are worth many ill-fated pounds after the fact.

Keep the bifocals adjusted for a glimpse of black spot on roses. It's caused by a fungus. The ailment is especially troublesome during rainy weather. However, it may strike at any time.

Symptoms include black spots on leaves showing irregular or radiating margins. The spots may vary from pinpoint size to half the width of the rose leaf. The larger spots of the rose are surrounded by a yellow halo. Infected leaves turn yellow and fall. In a severe attack, defoliation occurs, followed by death to the plant.

Spores of the fungus are spread by splashing rain or by mechanical contact when the leaves are wet. In warm weather, spores often germinate and infect rose leaves within a six-hour period.

It's best to prevent black spot rather than attempt to cure it. Some rose gardeners apply protective dusts or sprays at weekly intervals throughout the year, suggested controls include M-45, Phalanx and Captan.

Zinnia leaf spot can give trouble. Look for individual circular spots that rapidly become irregular. They are reddish-brown and may have grayish-white centers on the upper leaf surface.

The flowers also may be affected. Petals become spotted, later darkened and wither.

Zinnia leaf spot fungus overwinters on the seed and in the soil where zinnias have been grown. Therefore, the seed should be treated with Semesan before planting.

For a mild outbreak, pull off and destroy the infected zinnia leaves. If this fails, then spray the plants with captan.

Chrysanthemum leaf spot is another summer disease. Small dark spots appear on the leaves, gradually increasing until the spots grow together. Numerous minute, black fruiting bodies of fungus appear in the centers of the spots. Lower leaves are attacked first. They turn brown and remain on the plant, giving a fired appearance.

The control for "rain leaf" spot is weekly sprayings with Purzate, or similar chemicals.

Poinsettia scab makes plants unhealthy and causes considerable damage.

Look for corky, scab-like pustules occurring on stems and leaf petioles. The scabs at first are reddish-brown, later turning ash gray.

First try controlling by pruning and destroying infected branches. If this does not stop the disease, then apply sprays of maneb or captan.

Powdery mildew might give trouble on crape myrtle, roses and on a number of annuals. The symptoms include hairy or powdery grayish-white growth on leaves producing a distinctive curling.

For control of mildew, dust with sulfur or use a copper spray.

There are scores of other diseases that could invade the garden. The best way to prevent this is to plant shrubs from a certified nursery and seeds that have been inspected by the Department of Agriculture.

Healthy, vigorously growing plants tend to stay healthy with proper care.

Should a plant malady encroach your domain, contact your county agricultural agent. He has the latest information on disease control as furnished to him by the University of Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations.

Rotary Club Hears Talk On Skin Cancer

Luis Guerrero and Miss Golden of the Cancer Society presented a program to Rotary last Friday on skin cancer.

Dr. Guerrero told his audience that sun is the greatest cause of skin cancer, but that if caught in time, by a doctor, is not considered dangerous.

"Common sense is the best medicine to prevention," says the doctor. "Be moderate in exposing yourself to the sun, but if you have a skin break, abrasion of any kind that doesn't heal within two weeks, you should let a doctor see the wound."

Miss Golden presented a film which emphasized the plight of a life-long fisherman who fortunately realized the need of a doctor in time for the skin cancer caused by the sun to be controlled.

Watch Food Poisoning - Picnic Time

The State Board of Health today reported 436 cases of food poisoning for this year against 238 for the similar period last year and warned that the number can increase with warmer weather unless proper precautions are taken.

A. W. Morrison, Jr., director of the board's Division of Sanitation, said most foods spoil more quickly in hot weather when away from refrigeration and that "some can become contaminated in only five hours by rapidly multiplying bacteria."

On outings he suggested that foods be thoroughly chilled in the refrigerator at home, then put in a portable icebox with plenty of ice.

"If you plan sandwiches, take a long the fixings under refrigeration and make them just before mealtime," he said. "If you want potato salad, keep the dressing sealed and the eggs and potatoes separated until the last minute. Wash your hands. Don't mix any foods with your hands if you have a cut or scab on them."

"Use canned and bottled food whenever possible and open these just before eating. Watermelon or other fruit will be better dessert than pastries, especially any with cream filling. Carrots and celery store well. A number of foods can be frozen, put in the portable icebox and thawed by picnic time."

"Custard-filled pastry is one of the most common sources of food poisoning but processed

Flowers To See Flowers To Smell!

With almost every street in the City torn up, or in one stage or another of disrepair, and the spring rains, dropping suddenly and bountifully, Belle Glade citizens are prone to "throw bricksbats" at those in authority.

Two bouquets for the City and its employees were received at the City Hall this week, while the Manager, Commission and the employees are able to SEE them AND TO SMELL them.

One letter compliments the City on the "clean-up following the gas work," and "our yard and driveway will be better looking than before."

Another citizen complimented the City Manager and Superintendent of Public Works for their personal supervision of crews attempting to rid the southeast section of flood waters on Wednesday, June 9th.

Benefits For 50% Service Connected Disabled Veterans

M. T. Dixon of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs stated that VA regulations now provide that an additional compensation for dependents payable to veterans who are fifty percent or more disabled because of a service connected disability will be payable from the effective date of the increased evaluation to fifty percent or more if proof of dependency is received within 60 days from date of VA notification of increased disability.

Under a new construction, increased payments because of dependents, may now be paid Dixon says, retroactively to the effective date of any rating made on or after June 8, 1960.

Dixon warns that it behooves all veterans having any type of claim with the Veterans Administration to be sure that all marital evidence, birth certificates, etc., are current and up to date in his claims folder, not for the veteran's benefit, but for the future benefit of his widow and dependent children.

VOTERS OF SOUTH BAY...

My record of 10 years on our City Commission, 3 of which were served as Mayor, speaks for itself.
During my service we established the Port Mayaca Cemetery Board for South Bay, Belle Glade and Pahokee.

I supported efforts to:

- Build our first water tank
- Buy road grader and trucks for street work
- Buy ditching machine for water works
- Obtain Water Treatment Plant
- Obtain dike Site for Picnic Grounds & Boat Ramp

SOUTH BAY NEEDS better garbage and trash pickup service. I am NOT in favor of increasing the rates to give a contract to private enterprise as is now being done on trial basis.

I am against Millage Increase.

I favor and will work for:

- Improved drainage for our City
- One full-time fireman
- A street paving program
- A new fire truck

Records dispute rumors around town that our City is in bad financial standing. I invite you to inspect the records which is the privilege of every citizen. Here is the public record.

Miss Margaret West Celebrates Silver Anniversary Of Teaching

Twenty-five years of teaching the first grade at Belle Glade Elementary School was observed by Miss Margaret West, when she entertained members of the faculty and other friends. Principal Carl Crawford is shown presenting Miss West with a gift from the faculty.

Overcrowded conditions at Christmas of 1939 created Miss Margaret West's first teaching position. A second and third grade room was created and set up in the old auditorium of the Belle Glade Elementary School, with only a portable blackboard dividing her class from two six grade rooms that had to go through the auditorium to reach the outside.

Grades one through nine were taught at that time in the school. Mr. John B. Uetzi was principal.

The following year Miss West was asked to teach the first grade and has taught first grade for 24 additional years.

The school continued to grow and soon twelve grades were to be added. A teacher who had taught Miss West in American History and a very outstanding football coach at Pahokee, Mr. Frank Hobson was to be the new Principal of the school.

Finally the High School was over crowded and the new high school was built. It became difficult to be principal of both Elementary and high school so an assistant principal was added. Mrs. Anna Keene was teaching the sixth grade at that time, so was approached to fill the position along with her teaching. She only held the position for two years and returned to her home in Winter Park.

Mrs. Keene was replaced by Mrs. Margaret Mosley who was at that time teaching the fifth grade. Mrs. Mosley later was promoted to Glades Supervisor. Mr. Pellon Morris came from South Bay to accept the principalship and only remained a year at the Elementary school before accepting the position of principal at the high school, due to the resignation of Mr. Hobson who is principal of Forest Hill High School in West Palm Beach.

The present Principal, Mr. Carl Crawford replaced Mr. Morris and has held his position as lighting special events or projects of the first grade during that year. Attached to each card was a comical object or motif that portrayed each event. This afforded much amusement to those present.

Mr. Crawford was the speaker for the event. In his comments of the years of service of Miss West he remarked: "Life Affords man with only a few pleasures. One of those pleasures I have the honor of experiencing today. We have in our midst a person (Miss Margaret West) one who truly wears the title 'Teacher'—a symbol of greatness since the time of Socrates, Plato and immortalized by Jesus Christ. The object we offer you as a token of our appreciation to you is symbolic of many great abstract concepts. These concepts we feel best portrays the principal in which your life is anchored in relation to those whom you have exerted untold influence on and we who have had the privilege to work with you throughout the short 25 years of your life. This object is symbolic of freedom, Liberty, Religion, Marriage and School. Miss West on behalf of the Belle Glade staff it is with great pride that I present this token as a symbol of our appreciation, love and admiration of you as a person and as a teacher. You have etched a place in the hearts of all who have known you." The presentation by Mr. Crawford of a beautiful china bell with her name and date in silver was a gift from the faculty.

Other guests were teachers who had at sometime been associated with Miss West in her teaching career: Frank Hopson, Pellon Morris, Herman Close, Sam Lovell, Wayne Fortenberry, Fred Stevens, Mable Lutz, Margaret Earwood, Ruth Irvin, Mary Alma Stevenson, Vida Hardee, Kathleen Rogers, Sherry Tabb, Charlene Smith and Ann Lovell.

WEST FLORIDA PURCHASED Because the westward expansion of the United States made it desirable to have American ports on the Gulf of Mexico, the acquisition of Western Florida, as well as New Orleans, resulted in the Louisiana purchase in 1803.

The fertility of riches is stated very plainly in two places: the Bible and the income tax form. — Frederick (W.L.) Inter-County Leader

City Products Rumps... Keeps Lead In Softball League

Sparked by two masterful pitching performances by Phil Bonnell and home run power supplied by Bruce Taylor, City Products swamped Geneva's 13-1 Saturday night and blanked Glades Chevrolet 11-0, Sunday afternoon to retain their one game lead over Rashley's Dry Cleaners, who outscored Geneva's 13-12, and held off Loxahatchee 16-8, to hold on to second place in the Glades Fast-Pitch Softball League.

Bonnell struck out two batters and gave up only two hits while Bruce Taylor hit a two-run homer and three singles to pace the team over Geneva's 13-1. Jim Tyson's solo homer and Alvy Early's two-run blast made Bonnell's job easy Sunday as he shut out Glades Chevrolet 11-0 on one scratch hit. Bonnell and Mac Crews had two hits each for the winners in Sunday's game. Larry Marsh ran his league-leading home run total to nine with two round-trippers against Rashley's but their rally fell short and Earl Vann recorded his third pitching win for the Cleaners, 13-12. Roy Goodson hit his first homer of the season to help Rashley's outpace, Jerry Snyder, earn his third victory, over Loxahatchee, 16-8. Snyder was touched for two homers in that game.

"Due to unforeseen circumstances, over which we have no control, it is necessary to delay the formal Open House, planned for Sunday, June 20th," is the message sent to several invited guests this week by the Glades General Hospital Board.

The vicissitudes of fixture manufacturers, transportation lines, professional installers and workmen — somewhere along the line schedules have been fouled up.

BG Hi Footballer Dubbed Time Bomb By Sport Writer

The younger of two Davis boys from South Bay attending Wichita State and playing football is recipient of high compliment by an on-the-scene sports writer.

Bill Hodges, Sports Editor for Wichita newspaper, in a recent column on the Wichita State College football team says:

"Burt Davis, a freshman brother of senior tackle Butch Davis was another who showed up well."

"Burt handles kick-offs and field goals with a shrewd foot."

"Anytime we got to the opponents 45 yard line Burt can hit 90 percent of his field goal attempts," says Coach Kerras.

Hodge continues about the former Belle Glade High footballer, "The big Florida freshman won't be eligible for the varsity next fall."

"But the Shocks look like they might be able to do more than struggle by without him."

"Burt is their 'time-bomb' for 1966."

The three Everglades Conservation Areas cover 1,345 square miles. Lake Okechobee adds another 730 square miles of water storage capacity.

Only 7% Of Children Failed The Free Visual Screening Test

Only seven percent failed the recent free visual screening tests offered to children who will enter school for the first time next fall, according to figures compiled and released by Dr. R. Y. Creech and Dr. Donald Fiehs.

Dr. Creech and Dr. Fiehs, Belle Glade optometrists, donated their time and office facilities to give the free vision tests over a period of three days; both are members of the Florida East Coast Optometric Association.

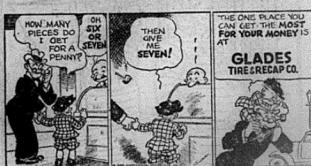

A total of 84 children were screened, Dr. Fiehs said. "Although not a complete visual examination, the seven-step screening is detailed enough to reveal any obvious sight defects or physical abnormalities and to determine if more comprehensive examination are indicated," Dr. Creech explained.

The seven percent failure figure compares most favorably with the nearly twelve percent failure average for such states as Iowa and Michigan where the tests are given annually and to the approximately thirteen percent failure average for the five counties served by the Florida East Coast Optometrists.

Complete reports of the test findings will be forwarded to state optometric headquarters in Orlando for study, Dr. Fiehs added.

The free visual screening is one of several public services through which optometry stresses the importance of professional vision care for persons of all ages.

Out Of 800 "Potential Laborers" 8 Recruits Remained For U.S. Sugar

Our federal government has become long on theory, but the fact that theory is one thing and results quite another, has been proven by U. S. Sugar Corporation in their attempt to "go the second mile" with Uncle Sam's labor recruiting program.

The recruitment of TEAM laborers under the college program was "very disappointing," Earl Morrison of the personnel department reported. In compliance with the federal government's request to recruit athletically inclined and otherwise physically fit youths for summer work in agriculture, U. S. Sugar Corporation representatives made a recruiting trip to 31 colleges in six southeastern states, where, according to the federal agency's information there was a potential of 800 laborers for the summer. The representatives interviewed 332 students; 248 of them refused the offer of employment; there were 25 rejected and 59 with whom the representatives signed contracts for summer work, and provided transportation. Of the 59 who signed, 42 never picked up their bus tickets; 17 arrived to start work on June 1st, and on June 8th only 8 remained on the job.

The group of 17 men were housed in newly repaired barracks. Even the floors were freshly painted. They were equipped with new bunk beds, new mattresses and pillows, and new linens. The men had their own dining room, and a private cook, and were given excellent meals.

A recreation program had been organized; three of the men who left early were on one of the baseball teams.

High school boys from the immediate area, who returned to their homes each evening, are making a better showing, personnel reports. There were 17 applicants from Clewiston High School, and 14 of them remained at work. There were six applicants from Harlem Academy and two had signed; there were two signed from Moore Haven High School and nine from Booker T. Washington High. Most of these are reported at work hoeing cane and two work on a spray rig. A group from East Lake High School applied for work and 32 were given medical examination to begin work on the 14th.

Initiative at the local level has proven much more effective than has Uncle Sam's TEAM recruitment program locally, and supervisors were pleased with the response from local students and particularly with their attitude and efforts, despite the fact that it is hard work and hot weather — certainly the hardest work these boys have ever done.

Painting And Ceramic Classes For Children At Norton Gallery

Classes in Painting and Ceramics for children ages 6 to 14 will be a feature of the Norton School of Art's summer program. Registrations are now being accepted by calling Mrs. Smith, the registrar, at Temple 2-5194.

Marion Lundgren, wife of the well known painter Eric Lundgren, will be the instructor. Her classes for children have been a popular part of the Norton School for over ten years. Commenting on her work, E. R. Hunter, director of the gallery, said, "Lundgren's classes are fresh and unique in their freedom. They stimulate the imagination and guide the youthful student in his understanding of the principles of art while encouraging individual expression."

THE TEMPERA PAINTING CLASSES are on Mondays for ages 6 to 9, and Wednesdays for ages 9 to 11. These classes combine the advantages of drawing with the pleasurable use of color and composition.

CERAMICS CLASSES are on Tuesdays for ages 6 to 9, and on Thursdays for ages 10 to 14. The ceramics classes are for those who, as the children say, "like their art in 3 D," creating new animals, fanciful figures, men from space, and original bowls and birds.

THE FRIDAY CLASS is for youngsters ages 10 to 14 who are ready for more advanced work in sketching, drawing, and painting. All classes are in the afternoon from 3:30 to 5.

Uncle Dan Says

All my life I been a strong supporter for high wages. I ain't never tasted none of 'em myself but I'm like the factory worker I was reading about. He said he didn't see his pay check but twice a week, once when the foreman handed it to him and once when he handed it to his old lady. But, he allowed, as long as somebody was getting it he was happy.

But they was such a thing as wages getting too high for the good of the Great Society. What brings this to mind was a piece I was reading in the papers this week about a group of them electric workers in New York City. They was getting $4.80 a hour for a 39-hour week or $188 a week plus fringe benefits that covered them and their families from "womb to tomb," as the welfare folks say. Now they was aiming to go on strike to get the same deal for a 30-hour week. I ain't agin the working man, but if this trend keeps up this country will be full of working folks that is hardly working. Them New York electric workers need to do a hitch in Vietnam to get their gunnights lowered.

And speaking of Vietnam, we're liable any day now to see one of them brush wars break out in Portland, Oregon. I see by the paper where a Colonel Brannon that is commanding the Air Base there has got the women folks mad at him. And when women get mad they can be as stubborn as a 14-year mule. This could be jungle at its worst. He has ordered that no woman wearing hair curlers can come to the post exchange and commissary. Furthermore, he has ordered they got to wear skirts or dresses, no slacks, shorts and pants and such things allowed.

First off, he barred hair curlers and "skintight" slacks and shorts. A argument started to mediate between him and the women. The slacks he claimed was "skintight" the women was claiming was so loose they was flapping in the breeze. He gave the women a piece of his mind, told 'em he was fighting the Battle of the Bulge, that the fatter the women the tighter she wore her slacks. This newspaper piece said Colonel Brannon had two battle stars and was a brave man. He has got to be to git in this kind of war.

I was discussing this matter with my old lady and was surprised to hear her taking sides with the Colonel. She allowed as how hair curlers belonged in the boardware (she picks up them fancy words from television) and that fat women was a sight in slacks and the in-betweeners had more pulling power in dresses and skirts. But confidential, Mister Editor, my old lady not to the contrary, I'm betting on the women again the Colonel in this one.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan.

Lantana Airports Offers Free Rides At Fun Fair Sunday June 27th

An Air Fun Fair will be held at Lantana Airport, Palm Beach County Park, Sunday, June 27 from 1:00 to 3:00 p. m. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

There will be free airplane rides, parachute jumps, a demonstration of rescue and medical aid by para-medics of the Civil Air Patrol, an exhibit of old and unusual airplanes, and a continuous showing of short movies on aviation.

Three hundred free airplane rides will be given during the afternoon to persons 18 years of age or older who register. If more than 300 register, numbers will be drawn to determine ride winners. Children over 10 may accompany their parents for the plane rides.

Palms Beach County has recently made several improvements at this airport," said Owen Gassaway, Jr., president of the Air Fun Fair.

Sometimes it seems that the older you get, the faster you have to go. Actually it isn't your speed that increases you just start running around in smaller circles. — Concrete Wash.) Herald
